

ABOUT ILAN

His feet move like you wouldn't believe.

Ilan is a relatively new choreographer with a lot of talent. His friendliness and charm are some of his great assets, not to mention his dances are original and unique. There is grace in his dancing and his energy and teaching skills are awesome.

His dances have caught the attention of many who saw a fresh, original and vibrant approach in creating the new generation of Israeli Dances.

He is closely associated to the organization of the annual "Karmiel Dance Festival" activities liaising directly with Shlomo Maman.

We are excited to have him with us at Machol, we can't wait to learn and dance with him, moreover we just let him lead us into the magical world of Israeli folk dancing.

We are going back to Deakin Management Centre where everything is of high quality. It has a fireplace, anytime hot beverages, snooker, and a warm shmooze room for us to relax. There is a 3.2km walking track, outdoor heated pool and spa, & tennis Court for our use. Not to mention a fully equipped gym. You will all remember the high quality and abundance of food on offer.

The dance hall is a 2 min. drive or a 8 min. walk on campus. It has a great wooden sprung floor for our comfort.

If you wish to bring some cakes for us to share and enjoy please do so.
